Offer Declared Wholly Unconditional

Shell Resources announces that it has received the European and US regulatory approvals for its proposed acquisition of Enterprise. All of the conditions of the Offer have now been satisfied or waived and accordingly the Offer has been declared wholly unconditional.

Walter van de Vijver, a Group Managing Director of the Royal/Dutch Shell Group of Companies and CEO of Shell's exploration and production business, said:

"We are delighted to have received the relevant regulatory approvals for our acquisition of Enterprise. We also now own, control or have received acceptances representing 76.4 per cent. of Enterprise's issued share capital and we are pleased to declare the Offer wholly unconditional."

"The acquisition process has run smoothly, efficiently and quickly. Our priority now is to integrate the businesses rapidly and unlock the $300 million per year of synergies that we have identified. Our teams have been very active and we are ready to begin integrating Enterprise's assets and operations into Shell's global portfolio. I would also like to take this opportunity to welcome Enterprise's staff into the Shell community."

The Offer, including the Loan Note Alternative, will remain open for acceptance until further notice. Enterprise Shareholders who wish to accept the Offer but have not yet done so are strongly encouraged to return their completed Form of Acceptance as soon as possible.

At 3.00p.m. on 7th May 2002, valid acceptances of the Offer had been received in respect of 227,832,504 Enterprise Shares, representing approximately 47.4 per cent. of Enterprise's issued share capital. In addition, since the commencement of the offer period, Shell Resources has acquired 137,166,036 Enterprise Shares representing approximately 28.5 per cent. of Enterprise's issued share capital. At the commencement of the offer period, pension funds managed by members of the Royal Dutch / Shell Group held 2,372,549 Enterprise Shares. These funds have accepted the Offer in respect of their holdings.

Accordingly, Shell Resources now owns or controls, or has received acceptances of the Offer in respect of a total of 367,371,089 Enterprise Shares, representing approximately 76.4 per cent. of Enterprise's issued share capital. Shell Resources is also pleased to announce that, since sufficient elections have been received, Loan Notes will be issued to Enterprise Shareholders who have elected to receive them.

Settlement will be effected on or before 21st May 2002 for Enterprise Shareholders who have already validly accepted the Offer. Settlement for Enterprise Shareholders who validly accept the Offer from today onwards will be effected within fourteen days of receipt of their valid acceptance.

Enterprise Oil will hold its final Annual General Meeting as normal on 16 May 2002. However, the formal business will be limited to the minimum required. In addition Shell Resources intends, as soon as practicable, to procure the making of an application by Enterprise to the UK Listing Authority for the cancellation of the listing of Enterprise Shares on the Official List and to the London Stock Exchange and other relevant exchanges for the cancellation of trading of Enterprise Shares

Appropriate proposals will be made to holders of options under the Enterprise Share Schemes in due course.

Terms used in this announcement shall have the same meaning as those in the Offer Document.

The Hague, 7 May 2002

The Board of Management of Royal Dutch Petroleum Company announces that the General Meeting of Shareholders of 16 May 2002 adopted a resolution to amend the Articles of Association to the effect that the par value of the shares is changed from NLG 1.25 to EUR 0.56, with the remaining fraction resulting from rounding down to the nearest euro-cent being added to the statutory reserves.

The aforesaid amendment of the Articles of Association will become effective on 31 May 2002 and therefore Euronext Amsterdam N.V. has been requested to arrange for the shares of Royal Dutch Petroleum Company to be listed at the new par value as from 3 June 2002.

Holders of shares in CF-form who have deposited their shares in a securities account with a bank or securities institution do not need to take any action.

Holders of registered shares entered in the Hague register as well as holders of shares entered in the New York register will shortly be informed of the redenomination of shares into EUR 0.56.

Shares in CF form will be centrally stamped by the Netherlands Central Securities Depository NECIGEF, the central institution as referred to in the Dutch Wet giraal effectenverkeer (Securities Giro Transfer Act), in collaboration with ABN AMRO Bank N.V., as from 3 June 2002. The stamp will evidence the aforesaid change in par value.

Commission

Publication of this announcement serves to inform shareholders of the resolution adopted to amend the Articles of Association of Royal Dutch Petroleum Company. Since the redenomination is of importance mainly in terms of administrative matters rather than of trading, no commission or notification commission will be reimbursed.

The Hague, 23 May 2002
